A HOUSE RESOLUTION to honor the Oak Hill girls' basketball team on a terrific season.

Whereas, the Oak Hill Lady Eagles had a basketball season that was the thing of dreams- perhaps even, the greatest season in the history of Grant County girls' basketball;

Whereas, Something magical occurred when this line-up of talented, hard-working and poised young athletes came together to achieve a common goal - a state championship for Oak Hill High School;

Whereas, With great anticipation, the Lady Eagles entered the IHSAA 2A Championship Game undefeated with a record of 26-0;

Whereas, The challenge was great, as the team would have to conquer 2A two-time defending champion and number 1 state-ranked Heritage Christian in order to clench the state title;

Whereas, While Oak Hill suffered a heart-breaking loss in the championship match up against Heritage Christian, the team could hold their heads high after a season of stellar performances;

Whereas, Coach Todd Law and his assistant coaches Sarah Matthews and Marc Planck could not be more proud of the team's success;

Whereas, The Oak Hill Lady Eagles can count all of the following among their achievements in the 2007-2008 season: IHSAA Class 2A State Runner-ups; Semi-State Champions; Regional and Sectional Champions for the second consecutive year; Central Indiana Conference Champions for the third consecutive year; Grant Four Champions for the second consecutive year; Ranked #2 in the final state poll- the highest in school history; Best record in school history with a season of 26-1, and many other Oak Hill records;
